Why RSVP?

Convenient. With RSVP, there's no delay. Call or email them for an introduction and within 5 days their members could be enjoying a date with a prospective partner. If there's no chemistry there, they'll have more chances that month. Faster, easier and safer than internet dating, plus, they'll know all RSVP's ladies are genuinely single and that they really are who they say they are.

Confidential. RSVP only offers a totally personal and confidential service. Member profiles and images will not appear on any website. Phone numbers are only released with permission. Discretion is assured at all times.

Classy. Because RSVP charges a registration fee, they only attract those who are genuinely single and interested in forming a serious relationship. RSVP meet every prospective member, so people can rely on the accuracy of their profiles and the quality of the people RSVP will introduce members to.
