

Dating Agency makes a move on Rutland

RSVP, One of the region's best-known and longest-established dating agencies, is making a move to new offices in Oakham and recruiting up to five new positions.

Units 1 and 2, Oakham Office Park

The move to the newly-constructed Oakham Office Park will come on 12 June, 17 years after RSVP was first established in Burton Latimer in 1992. Comments RSVP's Managing Director Anne Stringer: "Our lease in Burton Latimer is expiring and, having seen the standard of construction and green credentials of Oakham Office Park, nothing else quite measured up. It's such a fantastic environment; it will be a great place to work and we're really looking forward to the move".

RSVP already has strong connections to Rutland, with many residents as members. They're also one of the very few dating agencies that can genuinely claim to offer two ways for members to meet: one-to-one introductions and up to 60 singles events every month, many of them in Rutland, Stamford and the surrounding area. Anne lives locally and hosts some of RSVP's events; she adds: "In the last few weeks, I took a group of 20 on a cycling trip round Rutland Water, we had a pub night at the Grainstore, we enjoyed a pudding club at the Noel Arms, Langham, with another one coming up at the Horse and Jockey, Manton. So we're well-known here already."

RSVP is using the move as an opportunity to restructure its office-based operations and that will create up to five new jobs in Oakham. The new roles involve marketing members to each other, promoting events to members and creating profiles for new members when they join. "It's without doubt the best job in the world", muses Anne, "but many of the skills are transferable – especially from roles like recruitment, personal account management or one-to-one sales. And we will happily train those who have the necessary attitude and aptitude. If you're interested, please give us a call. The details are at www.rsvp-uk.com/recruitment".
